The Catholic Church celebrates World Peace Day January 1st. The theme the pope chose for the 2012 celebration is "Educating Young People in Justice and Peace." When young people recognize the dignity and beauty of every human life, including their own, and are supported in their natural desire to make the world a better place, they become agents of peace and justice in the world, Pope Benedict XVI said.

Peace and justice are built on "a profound respect for every human being and helping others to live a life consonant with this supreme dignity" the pope said in his World Day of Peace 2012. He asked parents and teachers to be more attentive to the hopes and fears of young people today and to their search for true values, and he asked governments to put more resources in education and job creation. He urged governments to make it possible for parents to choose the type of education they want their children to receive and to enact immigration reforms aimed at "reuniting families separated by the need to earn a living." The pope also asked young people themselves to take their schooling seriously and to be open to the example and knowledge their elders have to share. He asked them "to be patient and persevering in seeking justice and peace, in cultivating the taste for what is just and true, even when it involves sacrifice and swimming against the tide."

Adults have a serious responsibility to help the young fulfill their potential by being examples of what it means to live lives marked by the joy of faith, charity and respect for others, he said. Educating people in peace and justice begins in the family where they learn to value the gift of life, solidarity, respect for rules, forgiveness and hospitality.

Pope Benedict said peace is not simply a gift to be received from God. It is a task people of good will must undertake.

USHERS MEETING

There will be an important meeting on Tuesday, January 17 at 7:00 pm in Fr. Kreft Hall for all ushers and for anyone, male or female, who would like to become an usher. Ushers have an important role at our liturgies and as "ministers of hospitality," they are often the first parishioner a newcomer will meet.

Please plan on attending to hear some new suggestions to help us make our Sacred Heart ushers some of the best!

Knights of Columbus Student Poster Contest

During the month of January, all young people ages 8 through 14 are invited to participate in the Sacred Heart Council Knights of Columbus Substance Abuse Awareness Poster Contest. Students are encouraged to develop an original 11"x17" poster with a slogan idea designed to discourage their peers from experimenting with drugs or alcohol. Contest judging will be divided into two groups, Division 1 for youngsters ages 8-11, and Division 2 for youngsters ages 12-14. Entries must be submitted by January 29, 2012. First place winners in each Division and theme will be awarded a $25 Best Buy Gift Card. The winning posters will then be forwarded to the Michigan Knights of Columbus Poster Contest where they could be eligible for district, state, and international level prizes! For complete rules, guidelines, and information on how to submit your entry, please contact Michael Palchesko, Sacred Heart Parish Member and Council Poster Contest Chairman, at 248-689-0217.

CALLING ALL SENIORS!

You are invited to attend our first ever Senior Luncheon on Thursday, January 19 at noon in Fr. Kreft Hall. All you have to do is bring a dish to pass and come join us! This will be an opportunity to socialize with those you already know and to meet some wonderful new parishioners. While the food will be "pot luck", the parish will provide coffee, tea and soda.

All men and women who are 55 or older are invited. We are hoping this might be the beginning of a Seniors Group here in the parish but that will be up to you. Attendance at this first social event will give you the opportunity to discuss if this should become a monthly event and just how you would best like to organize a group - if indeed, there is interest.

So join us for a pot-luck lunch and bring any ideas you have about continuing gatherings for our senior parishioners. This might be the very thing you are looking for to start off 2012! That's Thursday, January 19 at noon in Fr. Kreft Hall. See you then!
