Easter Sunday

EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

Easter IS THE DAY THAT CHANGED Everything.

Dieter F. Uchtdorf

Reflect AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

FIRST READING:

We hear today part of the speech that Peter delivered in the household of Cornelius, a centurion and Gentile-believer in Christ. Peter bore witness to his experiences with Jesus, including Jesus' resurrection. To whom do you bear witness to your faith in the resurrected Jesus?

SECOND READING:

Paul urges the Colossians to remain focused on Jesus' resurrection, ascension, and final return — to "seek what is above." What do you find appealing in this spiritual exercise?

GOSPEL:

Mark's account of Jesus' resurrection focuses on the women's discovery of the empty tomb. In fact, Jesus risen from the tomb is the original ending of the Gospel of Mark. Why do you think Mark would end his Gospel with the empty tomb? ©LPI

HEARTS ON FIRE

at Sacred Heart

Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing. (Luke 12:49)

On November 22, 2020, Archbishop Vigneron wrote a Pastoral Note on Families of Parishes: Led by the Spirit on Mission. In the following weeks we will view and pray with excerpts from that Note.

LISTEN to the Archbishop: Our new model of Families of Parishes, . . . is a continuation of the fruits of Synod '16 and Unleash the Gospel. This is part of the next chapter in the Archdiocese which we are calling "Sent on Mission." Our focus is on the renewal of our parishes and schools to align all resources to our mission of sharing Christ in southeast Michigan. . . A Family of Parishes is a group-ing of three or more parishes that collaborate in deeper and more intentional ways than parishes have ever done before. Each parish in a Family will retain its own unique identity, similar to how each sibling has his or her own unique role in the family. This is not a parish cluster or merger as we have done in the past. Rather, Families of Parishes share similarities to other models that have been successfully implemented in other dioceses in the U.S. and Canada, with new parish structures to support mission. . . These new Families of Parishes will collaborate by sharing resources—including priests, deacons, and staffs across parish lines—to further advance the mission Christ has entrusted to His church.

[Our Family is: St. Hugo, St. Thomas More, St. Damien of Molokai, and Sacred Heart.]

NOTE ON FAMILIES OF PARISHES: LED BY THE SPIRIT ON MISSION, PG 7

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Sister Parishes in our Family (see above): Open our hearts and minds to the "next chapter in the Archdiocese" mission as we embark on the initiation of Families of Parishes. Help us to grow together in unity and love with our new sister parishes and help us all, lay and clergy alike, to learn to work collaboratively "in deeper and more intentional ways". Protect us from pride and resistance to change and help us to joyfully and thankfully embrace the gifts you have in store for us in this new path. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love as we embark joyfully on this new path. Amen!

ACT: What is this Note saying to me? What have I heard about Families of Parishes? Is this the first I've heard about it? What is my reaction? Excited for needed change? Worried about how changes will affect me? Check out the website to get some answers. Then pray the above prayer this week.

To read or to order the entire Note, Families of Parishes: Led by the Spirit on Mission go to familiesofparishes.org.

Saint OF THE WEEK

APRIL 8 | SAINT JULIE BILLIART

Born in Cuvilly, France, into a family of well-to-do farmers, young Marie Rose Julie Billiard showed an early interest in religion and in helping the sick and poor. Though the first years of her life were relatively peaceful and uncomplicated, Julie had to take up manual work as a young teen when her family lost its money. However, she spent her spare time teaching catechism to young people and to the farm laborers.

A mysterious illness overtook her when she was about 30. Witnessing an attempt to wound or even kill her father, Julie was paralyzed and became a complete invalid. For the next two decades, she continued to teach catechism lessons from her bed, offered spiritual advice, and attracted visitors who had heard of her holiness.

When the French Revolution broke out in 1789, revolutionary forces became aware of her allegiance to fugitive priests. With the help of friends, she was smuggled out of Cuvilly in a hay-cart. She then spent several years hiding in Compiègne, being moved from house to house despite her growing physical pain. She even lost the power of speech for a time.

But this period also proved to be a fruitful spiritual time for Julie. It was at this time she had a vision in which she saw Calvary surrounded by women in religious habits and heard a voice saying, "Behold these spiritual daughters whom I give you in an institute marked by the cross."

As time passed and Julie continued her mobile life, she made the acquaintance of an aristocratic woman, Françoise Blin de Bourdon, who shared Julie's interest in teaching the faith. In 1803, the two women began the Institute of Notre Dame, which was dedicated to the education of the poor, young Christian girls, and the training of catechists. The following year, the first Sisters of Notre Dame made their vows. That was the same year that Julie recovered from the illness: She was able to walk for the first time in 22 years.

Though Julie had always been attentive to the special needs of the poor and that always remained her priority, she also became aware that other classes in society needed Christian instruction. From the founding of the Sisters of Notre Dame until her death, Julie was on the road, opening a variety of schools in France and Belgium that served the poor and the wealthy, vocational groups, teachers. Ultimately, Julie and Françoise moved the motherhouse to Namur, Belgium.

Julie died there in 1816. She was canonized in 1969.

LEARN MORE ABOUT FAMILY OF PARISHES

On the Sacred Heart Website (esacredheart.org) under the tab news and events you can find a tab on Family of Parishes. This tab links you to the Archdiocese website where there is new and interesting information about family of parishes.

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

These prayers are specifically on behalf of our parish, our community, our Family of Parishes, and the world. Join us as we pray this week:

Lord, we pray In the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit:

~ For all those attending our Easter Celebration Masses to truly find the Body of Christ among us and be attracted to the joy and hospitality Sacred Heart Parish can offer.

~ That the Holy Spirit will deepen our desire for every person to encounter Jesus anew, grow daily as His disciples, and give witness to His Love and Mercy, especially those joining us for these Easter celebrations.

~ For the Family Gatherings scheduled over the coming months, that the lay faithful in our Family would accept this invitation to learn more about the other pastors and parishioners in our Family, and begin the work of col-laboration to fulfill The Mission Christ gave us. [See FamiliesofParishes.org]

~ For the priests in our Family—Fr. Cavellier; Fr. Jacob and Fr. Grayson (St. Damien); Msgr Rice (St. Thomas More); and Fr. Dominic (St. Hugo)—that they may love more perfectly those whom Jesus loves.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (Sign of the Cross). Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are. ©LPI

EASTER PEOPLE ON MISSION

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES SCRIPTURE CHALLENGE

UNLEASH
THE GOSPEL

Easter is the season for joyful missionary disciples. It begins with the celebration of the Lord's resurrection from the dead and culminates in his Ascension to the Father and sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. The readings from Acts of the Apostles give us a window into the early Church and help us to see how a small group of disciples in Jerusalem transformed into an empire-wide movement of people who committed their lives to Christ.

What started in Jerusalem over 2000 years ago, continues with us today. After his resurrection, Jesus presented himself alive to his first followers, and he is still alive today! The same Spirit that propelled the mission of the early Church continues to move us to bring the Gospel to the ends of the earth. Acts gives us the blueprint for how to do it.

Join us for a seven-week journey through Acts of the Apostles to walk with the first disciples and be inspired by what the Holy Spirit did through them to build the infant Church. Beginning on Easter Sunday, you will receive a weekly email with a reading guide, a brief commentary, and reflection questions to help you apply these readings to your life. Consider forming a small group to study and reflect on Acts of the Apostles with some friends! To sign up, go to unleashthegospel.org.

WATCH

SYMBOLON - SESSION 6: THE PASCHAL MYSTERY: THE MYSTERY OF JESUS' DEATH AND RESURRECTION
 Through Jesus's Death on the Cross, God reveals himself most profoundly as the God who is Love. In this episode of the Symbolon series, see how Christ's sacrificial love saves us from sin and shows us the pathway to true human happiness.

LEARN

FORMED NOW: EVANGELIZING MILLENNIALS
 After his Resurrection, Christ told his disciples to "go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation" (Mk 16:15). To continue this evangelical work today, we have to adapt to diverse audiences. In this series, Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp sit down to discuss how to reach one of those audiences—millennials.

LISTEN

PINTS WITH AQUINAS: WHAT IS GRACE? WITH MICHAEL GORMLEY
 As Catholics we believe that grace allows us to participate in the life of God. In this episode of Pints with Aquinas, Matt Fradd sits down with Michael Gormley to discuss what this means in our daily lives.

3 EASY STEPS

TO KEEPING YOURSELF & OTHERS HEALTHY!

We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

WASH YOUR HANDS

Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can't wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

DON'T TOUCH YOUR FACE

Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

KEEP YOUR DISTANCE

Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.
