Sacred Heart Catholic Church

October 25, 2026 — 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

Each year, during the month of November, the Church invites us to remember our deceased family members and friends in special prayer. As a parish community, we will remember our parish family members by reading the names of those who have died this past year at the COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY) MASS on Monday, November 2 at 9:00am.

This liturgy is a good opportunity for families, to come together in prayer and remembrance. If you wish you can bring a memoir (picture, candle, medal, etc.) of your loved one, and place it on the tables in the back of the church prior to Mass to have them blessed. In this way, we give thanks to God for His constant love, and we support and encourage one another.

THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKETS DRIVE!

November is almost here, and Sacred Heart's Annual Thanksgiving Food Basket Drive is getting underway! Help us share the blessings of Thanksgiving with families in need.

Volunteer sign-ups will take place after all Masses this weekend, October 24–25. Opportunities include collecting boxes, contacting families, distributing bags, sorting food, setting up the hall, packing baskets, and distributing food to families. There are plenty of ways to help, with opportunities for all ages and abilities. Every helping hand makes a difference!

Join us in making Thanksgiving brighter for families in our community!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.
John 6:51

Missionary Disciples Adore Jesus! Eucharistic Adoration is an invitation from the Almighty, the One who created everything out of nothing. It's an invitation to be in the very presence of a king, our King! Imagine, we sinful, fallen, messy humans are invited, welcomed, and encouraged to be with our Lord and God. It is in this silence that we discover who we truly are. Yes, we are sinners who stumble and lurch through this life, but we are also beloved children of God. We are desired. We are wanted. We are espoused to him. He wants us to bring him this mess because he can heal us. And you can TAKE your ONE before Him too, spiritually or physically. You both will be BLESSED as Jesus BREAKs through and you GIVE yourselves to Him.

YOU are a Missionary Disciple. » » Your mission is your ONE. » »
It begins with ONE step. » » Start now.

(National Eucharistic Congress)

WALK THE WAY OF THE EUCHARIST YOURSELF: as YOU walk with your ONE:
Fall is a time of new beginnings, and a good time to start to walk with your ONE on the path to the Eucharist. . . Ready to TAKE the first STEP? Or another?

TAKE BLESS BREAK GIVE

STEP 1: TAKE in Jesus—in prayer, Adoration, in His Word, and especially in the Eucharist. TAKE your ONE with you.

STEP 2: Seek God's BLESSing in communion with the Holy Spirit, to shower BLESSings on your ONE and YOU.

STEP 3: BREAK open opportunities; let God BREAK open YOUR heart and BREAK through to your ONE.

STEP 4: GIVE of yourself to your ONE—your time, a listening ear, an invitation, attention, accompaniment. Be a GIFT to your ONE.

"The sacrament of charity, the Holy Eucharist, is the gift that Jesus Christ makes of himself, thus revealing to us God's infinite love for every man and woman" Pope Benedict XVI

Sacramentum Caritatis: Apostolic Exhortation on the "Sacrament of Charity", the Holy Eucharist

LISTEN to POPE BENEDICT XVI: The Latin language: . . . In large-scale celebrations, particularly celebrations at international gatherings, which nowadays are held with greater frequency, the most should be made of the occasions. In order to express more clearly the unity and universality of the Church, I wish to endorse the proposal made by the Synod of Bishops, in harmony with the directives of the Second Vatican Council, that, with the exception of the readings, the homily and the prayer of the faithful, it is fitting that such liturgies be celebrated in Latin. Similarly, the better-known prayers of the church's tradition should be recited in Latin and, if possible, selections of Gregorian chant should be sung.

Sacramentum Caritatis 62

PRAY: Throughout the week . . . Come Holy Spirit! We are grateful for the unity and universality you have provided for our Church from her beginning, and always want to continue to promote and praise such ideals in our worship. Open minds and hearts to see the value of using the Latin text in the special parts of the Mass, and encourage all to learn the proposed prayers of the Mass and their meaning, so as to be able to communicate with all in unity. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What are these words saying to ME? Have I considered how using the Latin language speaks of the unity and universality of the Church—we are all one Church, regardless of our ethnicity, residence, history, or status? Have I ever attended a Mass where Latin is used in part? Do I know any prayers in Latin? I will pray to the Holy Spirit to become more aware of the use and meaning of Latin in the Mass, in prayers or chants. I will learn one Latin prayer. Eg. Kýrie, eléison. (Lord have mercy); Christe, eléison (Christ have mercy); Kýrie, eléison (Lord have mercy).

Nancy Piotrowski

"Thy Will Be Done"

by John Hannigan

When we pray the "Our Father," what does it mean to say, "Thy will be done"? What is God's will for us? From the very beginning, God lovingly wills us to be with him. Immediately after The Fall, God drew near, seeking Adam and Eve in the Garden, calling "Where are you?" (Gen 3:8-9) for they hid when, by their sin, they separated themselves from God.

The beautiful Prologue to the Catechism declares God wills us to "share in his own blessed life. For this reason … God draws close to man. He calls man to seek him, to know him, to love him with all his strength." God seeks us always. Jesus came to forgive our sins by his death and save us by his resurrection so the Father's will may be done. God's call in the Prologue is more than a generous invitation. It is the language of the great commandments laying out how we ought to cooperate with God's will. It is the Way Jesus teaches in today's Gospel (Matt 22:34-40).

The Pharisees test Jesus asking, "'Which commandment in the law is the greatest?'" Jesus quotes the Law (Deut 6:5; Lev 19:18) focusing on how we return the love God has for us: "'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.'"

The Ten Commandments detail how God wills us to act, of our own free will, to worship God alone and to love our neighbors. "With all your heart" means the law is more than following the letter of the law, which tripped up the Pharisees. It is choosing, out of love, to allow the law to be written on our hearts. In the Beatitudes (Matt 5:3-12), Christ teaches us how, by the Holy Spirit, to live with the law written in our hearts. Ezekiel spoke of how God wills to "bring you back," cleansed of sin and false gods, giving "you a new heart, and a new spirit … so that you walk in my statutes, observe my ordinances" (Ez 36:24-27).

We keep God's will by following his Law, and not hiding from him when we falter. Seeking God, living with the law written on our hearts is hard, but we can rely on the Holy Spirit and be strengthened by prayer and the Sacraments. Notice the Beatitudes end with "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven," that is, God's will for us.

ONE IN CHRIST, United in Mission

100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Continuing the Mission!

Special thanks to those of you who generously donated last weekend.

The Mission is Far from Over! In his last words before ascending to heaven, Jesus told us, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Mt 28:19), and for 2,000 years the Church has been at work in this task. Last week, we celebrated World Mission Sunday. We must never forget that 5.5 of the 8.1 billion people alive are not Christian, even now two millennia after Pentecost. The World Mission Sunday collection helps the Church to reach out to these brothers and sisters of ours who have yet to hear the message of Christ. Prior to 1908, the United States was considered missionary territory. The Church in America grew thanks to the support of World Mission Sunday, which built many of the first churches on American soil. Now, many years later, it's our turn to pay that generosity forward, as we care for the needs of our brothers and sisters across the globe. We are grateful for your support this October—and we invite you to continue the journey.

To find out more about how to do so, please visit www.pontificalmissions.org.

Book of Remembrance

The Church dedicates November to remembering all her faithful who have departed from this life, but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. November 2nd is designated as All Souls day, a holy day set aside for honoring the dead. We are all called to pray for the dead and perform Works of Mercy. Praying for the dead is one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy. You can sign the names of your beloved who passed away in our Book of Remembrance located near Baptismal Font. We will remember and pray for them on All Souls Day and throughout the month of November.

Donations to date: $91,050 or 114.74% of our goal of $79,353.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO SUPPORT CSA!

There is still time to make your gift to the Catholic Services Appeal (CSA). 100% of every dollar contributed above our goal comes directly back to our parish. These funds stay right here at Sacred Heart and help us continue the ministries, programs and services that make our parish such a special community. If you haven't yet contributed, please prayerfully consider making a gift. Your generosity truly makes a difference, and we are so grateful for your continued support of Sacred Heart!

Faith FORMATION

Dear Families,

Our Fatih Formation classes are underway. I am grateful for our Catechists who are giving of their time, talent and treasure to help our students grow in faith, and I am grateful for our families who have committed to this time. During this Ordinary time in our Church, the growing time, our students are beginning a new journey of faith. As we continue through our Church seasons this year our students will grow in their knowledge and relationship with God. Please keep our students in your prayers, especially those preparing to receive the Sacraments of Communion and Confirmation this year.

What Catholics Believe About Halloween

Is Halloween really a pagan holiday—or is it deeply Christian? In this episode of What Catholics Believe, Dr. Ben Akers explains the Catholic roots of Halloween, its connection to All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, and how Catholics can celebrate it faithfully. Discover the history of trick-or-treating, the dangers of the occult, the meaning behind costumes, and even the Catholic perspective on vampires and zombies.

Eternal Rest

We all have very real questions about death. What happens when we die? What does Scripture teach about death? How do we prepare for the life to come? Explore the mystery of death, dying, and everlasting life through Eternal Rest, a new offering of the Augustine Institute.

Who is St. Jude? | Catholic Saints

Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. James Prothro discuss this lesser-known apostle St. Jude.

Saturday, November 7: 10:00 AM - 8:00 PM
Sunday, November 8: 11:00 - 1:00 PM | 2:00 - 8:00 PM

Come and discover the "Apostle of the Sacred Heart", St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. She received visions of Jesus and His Sacred Heart between 1673-1675. Christ invited her to experience His love, mercy and tenderness. Devotion to the Sacred Heart subsequently spread thanks to St. Claude La Colombière, her Jesuit confessor.

This is the largest of her reliquaries to leave her Shrine in Paray-Le-Monial, France. Come and pray before her first-class relics as they tour throughout the United States.

To volunteer to "keep watch" for one hour, as the relics should never be left alone, please scan QR code to sign up.

The relics are sponsored by the International Emmanuel Community- a Public Association of the Faithful of Pontifical Right. If you should have any question, please call/text David or Alejandra Miller at 305-335-6581
