NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.
John 6:51

Missionary Disciples Adore Jesus! Eucharistic Adoration can bring healing, strength, wisdom, and courage. In the beginning, you may not know what to do during your time before Jesus in the Eucharist, but as you continue to go there, you will be wanting and able to stay for longer periods of time and to enter more deeply into the quiet. Jesus talks to you in a specific way and you learn to trust his voice. Sitting at the feet of Jesus is an honor we are all invited to enjoy. Like anything else worthy in life, though, it takes practice and patience. YOU are a Missionary Disciple.

"The sacrament of charity, the Holy Eucharist, is the gift that Jesus Christ makes of himself, thus revealing to us God's infinite love for every man and woman" Pope Benedict XVI

Sacramentum Caritatis: Apostolic Exhortation on the "Sacrament of Charity", the Holy Eucharist

LISTEN to POPE BENEDICT XVI: Interior participation in the celebration— Mystagogical catechesis [interpretation of mysteries and initiating others to them]: The Church's great liturgical tradition teaches us that fruitful participation in the liturgy requires that one be personally conformed to the mystery being celebrated, offering one's life to God in unity with the sacrifice of Christ for the salvation of the whole world. For this reason, the Synod of Bishops asked that the faithful be helped to make their interior dispositions correspond to their gestures and words. Otherwise, however carefully planned and executed our liturgies may be, they would risk falling into a certain ritualism. Hence the need to provide an education in eucharistic faith capable of enabling the faithful to live personally what they celebrate.

Sacramentum Caritatis 64

PRAY: Throughout the week . . . Come Holy Spirit! Lead us into "fruitful participation" in the liturgy we celebrate. We offer our lives to you "in unity with the sacrifice of Christ" for the salvation of the whole world. Help us to conform our "interior dispositions to correspond to our gestures and words." Open us to receive the education in eucharistic faith so that we are enabled to "live personally what we celebrate." Amen!

ASK & ACT: What are these words saying to ME? Have I considered how important my participation in the Mass is, not just the words to say and actions to do, but that I am "personally conformed to the mystery being celebrated"? Do I "offer my life to God in unity with the sacrifice of Christ"? Is my interior disposition "conformed to the gestures and words" at Mass? Or am I just participating in "a ritual"? I will pray for the "Eucharistic Faith" to enable ME to "live personally what I celebrate."

Waiting for the Lord

by John Hannigan

The readings today praise Wisdom in the service of virtue and what should be our deepest desire, being one with the Lord, our God. The first reading (Wisdom 6:12-16) personifies Wisdom as a faithful woman, "resplendent and unfading," and anticipates the parable in the Gospel showing how wise and prudent it is to prepare ourselves and wait in patient vigil, "sitting by his gate," for the arrival of he who is the object of our deepest desire. Psalm 63:2-8, sings of that desire: "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God … whom I seek," full of power and glory and kindness. We beseech him now, "while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name. With the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied."

In the symbolic parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins (Matt 25:1-13), Jesus teaches it is wise to be prepared, now and always for that unknown day when we meet him, the Bridegroom of his Church. All ten virgins "went out to meet the bridegroom" seeking "the kingdom of heaven." But only those prepared with flasks of oil were welcomed into the kingdom, the wedding feast, that banquet with riches to satisfy our souls (Psalm 65). But the foolish virgins had no oil and were left outside the locked door because the Lord said he did not know them.

The meaning of this parable is subtle. Some think the lamp refers to good works by which we "earn" our way into heaven. But it must mean more than that because all ten virgins had lamps. Others think the oil represents good works. But it must still be more because it would have been a good work for the wise virgins to share their oil with the foolish, and they did not do that. Still others think lamps of oil represent the Holy Spirit.

Fr. Philip Nolan, O.P. in Magnificat takes St. Augustine's view that a flask of oil is something that cannot be shared, something by which Jesus knows each person. The foolish seem to demand credit for what others have. The wise know the oil is the grace they've received from God and the Holy Spirit that moved them to "repentence, faith and interior joy." Neither grace, nor the Holy Spirit, nor being known by Jesus, can be shared. And staying awake is no answer for "they all became drowsy and fell asleep." So, "Stay awake AND be ready," by living each hour and day in the grace of Jesus Christ.

Knights of Columbus Council 8659 Celebrates Corporate Communion and Memorial Mass

On November 1, Sacred Heart Knights of Columbus Council 8659 joined the Divine Mercy Fourth Degree Assembly for their Corporate Communion and Memorial Mass. Fr. Joe Grimaldi celebrated the Mass in remembrance of council and assembly members who passed away during the past year.

During this special Mass, the Divine Mercy Assembly welcomed Tyler Fleming as a new member of its Color Corps. Sacred Heart Council 8659 also presented Sacred Heart Church with new Knights of Columbus vestments: a chasuble for the celebrant and a dalmatic for use by our deacons.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Fr. Joe and the Sacred Heart parish community for their continued support.

If you are interested in learning more about becoming a Knight, please speak with Deacon Dave or any of our Knights.

For more information, contact Deacon Dave at 330-284-3964.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Our deepest sympathies and condolences to the family of

Alberta Knox

who passed away on Thursday, October 26, 2026.

May her soul rest in peace.

A Garden of Gratitude

A Big Thank You to all of the Gardeners from Adopt a Garden and Gardening Angels who work so hard to make our grounds look beautiful. Thank you also to the gardeners who added some flowers to their location, adding color to their spot. A big Thank You to the Knights of Columbus for donating a the mulch for all of us to use to keep the weeds down and keep things looking good. Our gardeners are from nine cities– a wonderful reflection of their commitment to our parish.

I started working on the Sacred Heart grounds 17 years ago. It was in very bad shape. I started doing it myself and quickly realized I needed help. I convinced my husband, Ron, to join me. But, we needed more help, so I created Adopt a Garden – bringing together the volunteers who continue to care for our gardens today.

After much consideration, I have decided to retire from coordinating the program. I hope one or more volunteers will step forward to continue this ministry. The garden chart and paperwork will be available in the back of the church, and I will gladly offer guidance as needed.

Bless you, Pat Guibord

THE GOOD NEWS OF THE RESTRUCTURING

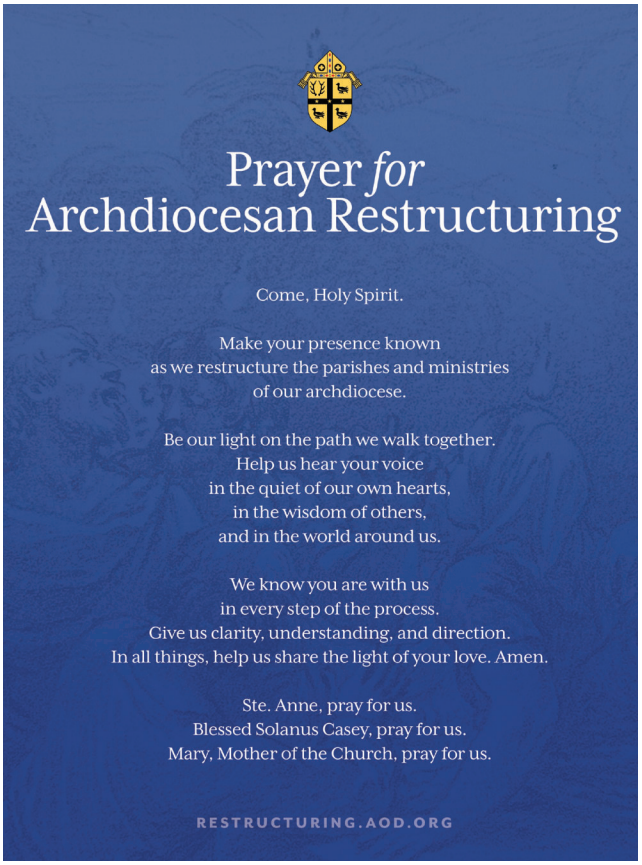

Dear Family at Sacred Heart, in light of the recent updates on the restructuring process, this humble soul senses a message from the Lord, whose Heart beats in this church and each soul here: "we are BELOVED and, so, being invited to take deeper our faith with Him." If we allow it, this trial will only make us stronger bearers of His light. The question is, which response do we choose? Our children are observing, so if nothing else, we have a golden opportunity to impart something of deep value to them…

But where can we start? I can't say that I know much, but here is what this church has taught me: we must begin with Hope, the substance of all faith, for the Author and Perfecter of faith has conquered even death, and for Him all things are possible (Matthew 19:26).

All we need is to ask, seek and knock (Matthew 7:7). Saint Paul gives us the rest: "Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God that passes all understanding will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:6-7)." I sense what must follow is Thanksgiving, to adorn our praise and prayers…

Let us then come before the table of the Lord with hearts full, let us dig deep and bring them to overflow! What say you we write down the causes of our gratitude and place them in the designated Thanksgiving Basket, later to be united with Mass offerings—providentially timed with a holiday in that name?! What say you we approach the Lord and show Him just how Grateful we are that He suffered the cross to free us from the bonds of death, to offer us His Body and Precious Blood in every Mass of this church, that we may sit at the King's table as His beloved children and friends for all eternity? Yes, our Father is the King of the universe! How rich we must be by the inheritance of His Love! Can you imagine, we are not orphans, not abandoned, but "Beloved!" If nothing else, please take away this one word from His Heart. See you around the table!

With Love and Gratitude for Each of You,
A Fellow Parishioner

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God." -Hebrews 12:1-2 ~ Amen

Cabrini

From Alejandro Monteverde, award-winning director of Sound of Freedom, comes the powerful epic of Francesca Cabrini, an Italian immigrant who arrives in New York City in 1889 and is greeted by disease, crime, and impoverished children. With broken English and poor health, Cabrini builds an empire of hope unlike anything the world had ever seen.

The Afterlife | Eternal Rest | Episode 2

What happens after the moment of our death? Once the soul has been separated from the body, then what? What is heaven, hell, and purgatory? This session looks at the truth about what awaits the human person on the other side of death.

How to Advent | Episode 2

The Advent wreath is an invitation to enter into the waiting and preparation for the birth of our Savior! As we explore the meaning of the Advent wreath – its light, colors, and components – we can better grasp how we should be preparing our hearts. As the light from the candles grows brighter and brighter throughout the four weeks of Advent, so too grows our longing for the coming Light of Christ.
