NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.
John 6:51

Missionary Disciples Adore Jesus! Eucharistic Adoration might be new to you. If so, give yourself some grace. Try not to fall into the trap of making excuses for why you cannot stay longer, or the trap of shame that you aren't "better" at it. Ask Jesus to teach you to adore him. If you are there, it is because he invited you and placed it on your heart. He has something he wants to tell you, and he's willing to teach you to hear him. Perhaps as you read this, you are considering going. That's Jesus talking to you right now! That stirring in your hearts is his quiet voice. Listen to Him.

"The sacrament of charity, the Holy Eucharist, is the gift that Jesus Christ makes of himself, thus revealing to us God's infinite love for every man and woman" Pope Benedict XVI

Sacramentum Caritatis: Apostolic Exhortation on the "Sacrament of Charity", the Holy Eucharist

LISTEN to POPE BENEDICT XVI: Interior participation in the celebration— Mystagogical catechesis [interpretation of mysteries and initiating others to them]: Given the vital importance of this personal and conscious participatio, what methods of formation are needed? The Synod Fathers unanimously indicated in this regard, a mystagogical approach to catechesis, which would lead the faithful to understand more deeply the mysteries being celebrated. In particular . . . it must first be said that, "The best catechesis on the Eucharist is the Eucharist itself, celebrated well." By its nature, the liturgy can be pedagogically effective in helping the faithful to enter more deeply into the mystery being celebrated. That is why, in the Church's most ancient tradition, the procession of Christian formation always had an experiential character.

Sacramentum Caritatis 64

PRAY: Throughout the week . . . Come Holy Spirit! Lead us to a deeper understanding of the "mysteries being celebrated" in the Mass, especially the Eucharist. Help us to "celebrate it well" so that it can teach us its meaning as we "enter more deeply into the mystery being celebrated." Amen!

ASK & ACT: What are these words saying to ME? Have I ever considered the best way to understand the "mystery" of the Eucharist? Or has it just been something that I "do"? How does the "experiential character" of participating in the Eucharist teach me, by its very nature, about the Eucharist itself? I will be intentional about considering the "mystagogy" of the Eucharist at Mass, and ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten my mind and heart to the very truth of Jesus' true presence in the Sacrament of the Eucharist."

The Treasures We Receive

by John Hannigan

The readings today are lessons on appreciating our gifts from God and our responsibility to use them well for others. Interpretations of the parable about servants entrusted with ten, or five, or one talent often focus on the huge amount a "talent" represented in Jesus' time, many years' worth of wages (Matthew 25:14-30). But regardless the gifts we receive, whether in great measure or not, even whether they are apparent blessings or not, we give thanks for all we receive and use them for good.

We might hope that every gift from God is "an unfailing prize" bringing good into our lives. But Paul's letter today reminds us that even among the faithful united in Jesus Christ as "children of the light," even among those blessed ones, darkness may descend in many ways, a "sudden disaster" that we "will not escape" (1 Thess 5:1-6). It is difficult to understand how the challenges we will inevitably face in our fortunes, health and relationships, can also be blessings. The Book of Job, the oldest in the Bible, is an allegory seeking an answer to why bad things happen to good people. Job gets no satisfactory answer from friends trying to help him understand his fate. Job's response is unflinching praise of the Lord who had gifted him great blessings, and allowed terrible evils to fall upon him. As every turn got worse, Job drew closer to God. His constant prayer was: "The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord!" (Job 1:21).

The passage from Proverbs 31 today is a song of praise for a "worthy wife," extolling her virtues and talents, and her generosity towards others as "she reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy." Our responsibility at all times and in every circumstance is to praise God and to do his will by loving our neighbors, like the "worthy wife," sharing our time, talent and treasure. The very next chapter in Matthew (25:31-46) describes how we will be held to account for how we used our gifts to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, etc. Even how well we "offered up" our sufferings as redemptive prayers for the good of others. Praising God always and making the best use of our gifts and sufferings, our blessings and challenges, we may one day hear Jesus say, "'Well done, my good and faithful servant … come, share your master's joy.'"

INVITATION TO A HOLY HOUR OF REPARATION

JOIN US EVERY FRIDAY FROM 6:00 – 7:00 PM IN CHURCH

The Holy Hour of Reparation is a beautiful devotion rooted in the revelations of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. Jesus called for prayers of reparation to make amends for the indifference, ingratitude, and lack of love He receives from humanity.

In His message to St. Margaret Mary, Jesus expressed His desire that the faithful spend an hour in prayer, offering reparation for sins, imploring God's mercy for sinners, honoring His Sacred Heart, and consoling Him for the suffering He endured when abandoned by His Apostles.

As Jesus said: "Could you not watch one hour with Me?"

Pope Pius XI reaffirmed the importance of reparation in his encyclical Miserentissimus Redemptor (Most Merciful Redeemer), emphasizing the urgent need for expiation and reparation in the world today: "That the necessity of Expiation or Reparation is especially urgent to-day must be evident to everyone who considers the present plight of the world" seated in wickedness" (1 John 5:19).

The Sacred Heart of Jesus promised to S. Margaret Mary that He would reward abundantly with His grace all those who should render this honor to HIS HEART"

Come and spend an hour with Jesus. Let us respond to His invitation through prayer, adoration, and acts of love, offering consolation to His Sacred Heart and praying for our parish and the salvation of souls.

How to Advent | Episode 3

The often-forgotten Jesse tree reminds us of God's faithful fulfillment of all his promises (of which there are so many throughout all of salvation history!). In Christ, he keeps every promise he has made, from Adam and Eve to John the Baptist. His promises of peace and salvation apply not just to ancient Israel, but to all of us today. Join us in learning about this hidden gem of an Advent tradition and how it can help you and your family walk through Advent in the light of Sacred Scripture.

The Hour of Our Death | Eternal Rest | Episode 3

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. This session, we discover the role of this sacramental anointing in the spiritual struggle during serious illness, the final stages of our temporal life, and the hour of our death.
